A Certificate of Insurance for both Liability and Workers Compensation must be provided and be on file with the Borough before any license(s) will be issued. Contractors performing work covered under the Home Improvement Consumer Protection Act (HICPA) are exempt from the fee for a contractor license only, provided the work being performed complies with the provisions of 73 PS 517.1 et. A copy of a current HICPA certificate must be on file with the Borough for any contractor performing work on any residential property. Failure to maintain Liability and Workers Compensation insurance or failure to maintain a current HICPA certificate where required will be grounds for revocation of any Brookhaven licenses.
